-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --
Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Status: 1-3, and 5-18 rejected.

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 4/2/2003 has been entered.

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-3, and 5-18 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1-3, and 5-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Evans (US Patent No. 6,347,329).

Art Unit: 2171

1. Regarding Claims 1, 8, 9, 16, 17, and 18, Evans discloses a method of generating a medical¹ report, comprising:

displaying a plurality of pre-chosen findings comprising a plurality of medical condition that are associated with a particular portion or sub-portion of a living body, and a separate medical report simultaneously on an electronic display, the medical report comprising a summary section (see Fig. 5, 191, 193, 154, 151, column 6, lines 45-53, Evans);

selecting a pre-chosen finding based on a diagnosis of the particular portion or sub-portion of the body as a user selected finding (see column 6, lines 54-59, Evans); and automatically copying electronically said user-selected findings from the displayed pre-chosen findings into the summary section of the medical report upon an indication by a user that it is desired that said user-selected finding be add to the summary section of the medical report (see column 5, lines 6-33, Evans²).

2. Regarding Claims 2, and 10, Evans discloses a method wherein the medical report further comprises a plurality of group sections, and automatically copying electronically each pre-chosen finding into a group section of the plurality of group sections which corresponds to the pre-chosen finding upon an indication by a user that it is desired that said user-selected finding be add to the summary section of the medical report (see column 5, lines 42-57, Evans).

3. Regarding Claims 3, 6, 11, and 14, Evans discloses a method further comprising:

receiving for a second time a selection of said respective pre-chosen finding from the displayed pre-chosen findings, the second selection of said respective pre-chosen finding being previously selected and copied into the summary section of the medical report (see column 6, lines 55-64, Evans³); and automatically removing electronically the second selected respective pre-chosen finding from the summary section of the medical report upon an indication by a user that it is desired that said user-selected finding be add to the summary section of the medical report (see column 10, lines 56-63, Evans⁴).

4. Regarding Claims 4, and 12, Evans discloses a method further comprising selecting the pre-chosen findings from a list of available findings (see Fig. 20, 334, Evans).

5. Regarding Claims 5, and 13, Evans discloses a method further comprising displaying on the electronic display an indicator next to the selected pre-chosen finding, separate from the medical report, so that specific information regarding the patient can be identified either from the display of the pre-chosen finding and identified in further detail in the medical report (see Fig. 20, indicator 001, Evans).

6. Regarding Claims 7, and 15, Evans discloses a method wherein the copying further comprises converting the selected pre-chosen finding into a more descriptive form before copying into the summary section (see Fig. 20, 335, Evans).

³ By allowing the user to select more than one form, reads on second form as the claimed limitation.

⁴ The method of ending and restarting the process reads on removing data.
